

Wills & Financial Planning

If you have no will, the intestacy rules mean your loved ones may not benefit. Do you want to set up a trust fund for your children/grandchildren? Is saving Inheritance tax important to you? We will help you make sure your wishes are the only ones that matter.

Lasting powers of attorney

Who do you trust to look after you if you can't look after yourself? If you lose mental or physical capacity, you can make sure someone close to you can make important decisions for you. Talk to us; we will put your mind at ease.

Deputyship

Has a loved one already lost mental capacity? Do you urgently need to look after their finances or get involved in their medical treatment? We can help you obtain a Court order enabling you to act on behalf of someone who needs your help.

Probate and administration of estates

Has someone you loved died and you are feeling overwhelmed with the process of what to do next? We will take the pain out of dealing with the administration of the estate and the distribution of the assets.

Nursing home fees

Are you or someone close to you likely to face residential or other care costs? Planning for the unexpected? We will help you explore the options so as to keep those costs to an absolute minimum.

For further information, or to discuss how we may be able to assist in your personal situation, please call

+44 (0) 1753 880075
clarityfamilylaw.co.uk